

Interviews with people who were invited to be screened for chlamydia trachomatis

Interview guide

Arrival of request to participate and testing kit

- Feelings about being approached by their GP in this way
- Reactions of other members of the household to the arrival of the package in the household

Meaning of chlamydia trachomatis

- What did chlamydia trachomatis mean to them
- What did being tested for chlamydia trachomatis mean

Reasons for participating or not participating

Test procedure

- Discussions with others about testing
- Feelings about providing urine sample (and for women vulvo-vaginal swabs)
- Feelings about returning the samples and choice of method used to return samples

Test results

- Expectations as to the result
- Thoughts about possible feelings if results were positive or negative
- Reactions to the test results

For those who had been invited to go to their GP's surgery for their results

- Feelings about the way the results were reported
- Reactions to the test results